DESCRIPTION OF INCIDENT: On 1/5/14, members of the Pembroke Pines Police Department responded to the Burger King at 8913 Taft St, in reference to a disturbance.

The complainant/witness advised that she observed the listed victim walk into the lobby of the restaurant and proceed to the ladies bathroom. The female victim exited the bathroom and subsequently exited the restaurant for a short time, before re-entering and again walking into the ladies bathroom. Suspect 1 followed the victim into the bathroom, at which time, the witness overheard a commotion. The witness entered the bathroom and observed the suspect and the victim in the bathroom stall. The victim was on the ground and her head was being pushed into the toilet by the suspect. The witness told the subjects that they needed to leave and both got up and began to walk out. Prior to exiting, the suspect forcefully grabbed the victim by the hair and pulled her out of the restaurant. It was then that a silver Infinity G35 (2009-2011 model; 4 door; spoiler in the rear; and a University of Miami sticker in the back window) drove up to them. Suspect 2 was the driver of the vehicle. Prior to entering the vehicle, Suspect 1 was overheard saying, "You're going to die today and I'm going to be the one to do it". Suspect 1 then forced the victim into the front seat, got into the front seat as well, and they exited the parking lot and drove southbound on Douglas Rd.
