DESCRIPTION OF INCIDENT: The two listed missing persons are a married couple, who both suffer from dementia and Alzheimer's disease. They were reported missing to Pembroke Pines Police by their son, who last saw them at 8:30 am, on Wednesday 2/25/15. He advised that upon his return to their home at approximately 11:00 pm the same day, they were not there. It is believed that the married couple may likely be traveling in their personal vehicle (2005 tan Toyota Corolla, Fl. tag YOSXY). Both missing persons are dependant on medication which was left behind at their home, and are at great risk if it is not taken. A silver alert and state wide BOLO has been issued, as this case is being actively investigated. Please see the attached flyer which has a picture of both missing persons, as well as a picture of a car similar to the one they may be driving.
