INCIDENT SUMMARY:

The Pembroke Pines Police Department responded to a 911 call of an occupied suspicious vehicle (2004 green Nissan pickup) at the listed location. Once officers arrived on scene, they realized that there was an apparent gunshot that had shattered the passenger-side window of the vehicle.

As officers attempted to have the occupant (Hispanic Male, 39 YOA) step out of the vehicle, the subject exited the driver's side of the vehicle with a firearm visibly holstered in his waistband.

The subject proceeded to remove the firearm and placed it on the floorboard of his vehicle, at which time he was taken into police custody and subsequently transported to the hospital for a mental evaluation.

While it has been determined that shots were fired from within the vehicle, it is currently unknown where or under what circumstances. It should be noted that this appears to be an isolated incident, and has no relation to any other police activity occurring during the same timeframe within Pembroke Pines. This remains an active investigation.
