the victim pleaded with the suspect to take her to the hospital he agreed. However once inside the vehicle the suspect refused to drive the victim to the hospital and drove around to unknown locations along US Highway 27. At some point the suspect stopped and exited the vehicle along US Highway 27 where he retrieved bottles from the brush along the side of the road. The suspect then broke the bottles and began to cut himself on both arms. The suspect got back in the vehicle with the victim, and after approximately an hour or two of driving around the suspect drove the victim back to their residence where she was able to escape and contact police at a neighbor's residence.

The victim was transported to an area hospital for her injuries.

The Pembroke Pines Police Department is asking for the media and public's assistance in locating Everton Harrison. He was last seen leaving the residence in his 2010 Range Rover Sport. The vehicle is brown or bronze in color bearing Florida tag 481TXR.

The severity of the suspect's injuries are unknown at this time.

If anyone sees or locates Everton Harrison please contact police immediately.
