INCIDENT SUMMARY:

The suspect is a teacher at Harvard International Academy where the victim is a student. The teacher began to take a special interest in the student by making comments about his attire and standing close to the victim. The teacher took the victim's phone and requested him to follow his Instagram account and got the victim's cellular phone number. The suspect immediately began to message the victim, which quickly became inappropriate and sexual in nature. The suspect sent multiple images depicting adult pornography and solicited the victim to send him explicit pictures of himself. The suspect was taken into custody at the school and post Miranda admitted to the charges, stating he had the child's best interest at heart and was only trying to befriend him. The suspect was transported to BSO jail without incident. No additional information will be given at this time, as there may potentially be additional victims whom are unknown.

See attached probable cause affidavit.
