- 2)

VICTIM(S) - NAME, AGE, DOB, RACE, SEX, ADDRESS:

- 1) White Male (Cashier)
- 2) Chevron (Business)

INCIDENT SUMMARY:

On January 30, 2018 at approximately 1:19PM an unknown suspect (Suspect #1) entered the Chevron gas station located at 10255 Pines Boulevard. The suspect loitered inside of the business until he was the only customer in the store and asked Victim #1, a cashier of the business, to use the restroom. Upon exiting the restroom, the suspect walked around the counter to where Victim #1 was at the open cash register. The suspect brandished a dark semi-automatic handgun and placed it at Victim #1's waist before demanding cash.

At this time Victim #1 handed the suspect all of the cash from the register. The suspect proceeded to exit the store and flee eastbound from the location. Pembroke Pines Police were contacted following the incident, and a search was conducted of the area which was met with negative results.

While reviewing video surveillance it was revealed that the suspect is likely the same suspect that is responsible for a series of similar robberies throughout Miami-Dade and Broward counties, including Pembroke Pines case #2018-000918. The suspect is described as a dark-skinned male, 25 years of age, approximately 5'09" in height, 160 lbs, with a slim build, black hair, and black eyes. He was last seen
