INCIDENT SUMMARY:

The Pembroke Pines Police Department is proud to announce a newly created Autism Awareness & Special Needs Registry program.

This program will help police officers better improve service to those in our community living with Autism, or other special needs. The Autism Awareness & Special Needs Registry program is an ongoing partnership with our community, and its purpose is to improve interactions for all parties involved.

Family members and caregivers are invited to proactively provide information about any loved one living with special needs based upon a mental or neurological disability. For those
