Come and "Savor The Sounds" Free Outdoor February Concert

Pembroke Pines, FL (February 8, 2023) – As part of the City of Pembroke Pines Savor the Sounds Concert Series, all are invited Sunday, February 26, 2023 from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the Charles F. Dodge City Center Plaza, located at 601 City Center Way.

Savor the Sounds is a fusion of live music, art and food. This event is free and perfect for all ages. There is plenty of room on the Plaza to set up lawn chairs, spread a blanket and enjoy a fun-filled evening with outdoor music and delicious food. There are also fun lawn games such as Giant Jenga, Dominoes, Corn Hole and Connect 4 for all ages. Just a reminder, please, no dogs are allowed, and all concerts are held weather permitting.

At February’s concert, musical artist Kat Riggins is bringing the sounds of Rhythm and Blues live to Pembroke Pines. Riggins’ music is inspired by her passion to keep the Blues alive and has been nominated for “Best Soul Blues Female” by the Blues Foundation in 2022.

Additionally, guests can observe artist Sarah Huang as she creates beautiful art in person. Huang is a Taiwanese-American artist known for her “visceral” and “surrealistic” art style. Her work consists of paintings, drawings, and installations utilizing abstract feelings, forms, and stories.
