Two Exhibits Opening The Frank C. Ortis Art Gallery DATE CHANGE

Pembroke Pines, FL (June 13, 2024) -- Join The Frank C. Ortis Art Gallery, located at 601 City Center Way, Thursday, June 20, 2024 from 6-9 PM for the free Opening Reception of 'Imaginary Tapestries' and 'Soñadora.' The opening reception will feature music and light refreshments.

Exhibit Details

The event is FREE and open to the public. No registration or tickets required.

"Imaginary Tapestries"

'Imaginary Tapestries' aims to explore the intricate tapestry of familial connections, childhood memories, and the transformative power of artistic expression. The exhibition will be a multi-layered narrative, weaving together the stories of Aurora Molina, her daughter Stella Gaia Vandermey, and the diverse voices of Aurora's Atelier Students. Through fiber art, mixed media installations, and curated works, the exhibition will offer a journey through the past, present, and future, highlighting themes of resilience, identity, and belonging.

Exhibit will be on view from June 20, 2024 – August 24, 2024.

"Soñadora"

Visitors will discover the enchanting world of Yuyi Morales, a six-time recipient of the prestigious Pura Belpre Award and the first Latina to receive a Caldecott honor for her book Viva Frida in 2015.

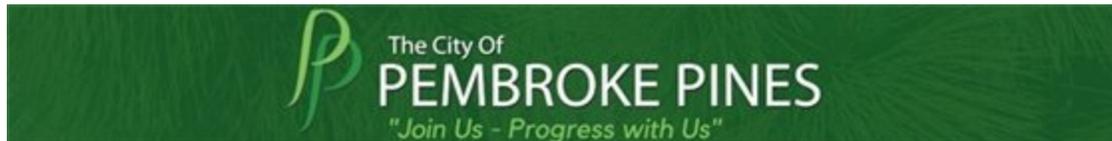

The "Soñadora" exhibition will run through August 14, 2024. Organized by the National Center for Children's Illustrated Literature, this showcase celebrates Morales' journey and her vibrant storytelling by featuring over 60 original illustrations.
